1. Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by either Party, whether orally, in writing, or by any other means, that is designated as confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure.
2. Obligations. Each Party agrees to (a) hold the other Party's Confidential Information in strict confidence, (b) not disclose it to any third party without prior written consent, and (c) use it solely for the Purpose.
3. Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include information that is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the receiving Party, was already known to the receiving Party without an obligation of confidentiality, or is independently developed without use of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information.
