

Last Will and Testament

I, the Testator identified below, being of sound mind, declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, revoking all prior wills and codicils I have previously made.

Testator (Full Legal Name)

Address

1. Executor. I appoint the person below to serve as Executor of my estate, to act without bond if permitted by law.

Executor Name

Alternate Executor (if unable/unwilling to serve)

2. Beneficiaries and Distribution. My estate shall be distributed as follows:

Distribution of Assets

3. Guardian for Minor Children (if applicable).

Nominated Guardian

4. Witnesses. Most jurisdictions require a will to be signed in the presence of two witnesses (who are not beneficiaries), who then also sign — some jurisdictions additionally require or allow notarization for a "self-proving" affidavit.

Wills are one of the most formality-sensitive documents in law — signing/witnessing/notarization requirements, what can and can't be left outside probate, and validity rules vary sharply by jurisdiction. A will that doesn't meet your jurisdiction's exact execution requirements can be ruled invalid. This template is a starting-point reference only — have a qualified estate-planning attorney prepare or review your actual will.
