

Employee Tax Withholding Form

This is an unofficial, general-reference withholding worksheet an employer can use to collect an employee's withholding elections. It is not a substitute for the actual IRS Form W-4 or any state-specific equivalent, which employees must also file where required.

Employee Information

Full Legal Name

SSN (last 4 digits)

Date

Home Address

Filing Status

Single

Married filing jointly

Head of household

Withholding Adjustments

Dependent/Credit Amount ($)

Other Income (not from jobs, $)

Deductions (other than standard, $)

Extra Withholding Per Pay Period ($)

Employee holds multiple jobs or spouse also works (Two-Earners worksheet applies)

Under penalties of perjury, I declare this information is true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Employee — Signature (type full name)

Date

Template provided for general reference only and does not constitute legal advice. Laws vary by jurisdiction — have a qualified professional review this document before you sign or rely on it.